BULLETTIN 1

Nestled on a slender peninsula in the Northern Adriatic, Cavallino-Treporti is much more than just a seaside resort; it is a unique "garden city" where the rhythm of the tides dictates the pace of life.

Located just a stone's throw from Venice, the municipality stretches across 15 kilometers of golden sand. It acts as a natural bridge between the sparkling Adriatic Sea and the tranquil, silty waters of the Venetian Lagoon. This dual soul makes it one of the most ecologically diverse areas in Italy.

The landscape is a breathtaking mosaic of environments:

- The Dunes and Pinewoods: Along the coast, ancient maritime pine forests provide a cool canopy, protecting a fragile ecosystem of sand dunes and wild flora.
- The Salt Marshes (Barene): On the lagoon side, you will find a silent world of canals and salt marshes. This area is a haven for birdwatchers, especially during sunset when pink flamingos, herons, and egrets take flight.
- Vegetable Gardens: Often called the "Orchard of Venice," the fertile soil here produces world-class artichokes, tomatoes, and asparagus, sold daily in the historic markets of the Rialto.

Getting to the Race Venue

The race venue is located in the heart of the Cavallino-Treporti coastline, a strategic location situated approximately 45 minutes from Venice Airport (Marco Polo) and about 60 minutes from Treviso Airport (Canova). Thanks to frequent water bus connections, the venue is also just a 30-minute boat ride from St. Mark's Square, Venice.

By Car

Cavallino-Treporti is easily accessible from major international and national routes:

- From Germany: Via the Brenner Pass (A22), continuing along the A4 highway towards Venice/Trieste, exit at Noventa di Piave/San Donà di Piave.
- From Austria: Via the A23 (Tarvisio), merging onto the A4 towards Venice, exit at Noventa di Piave/San Donà di Piave.
- From Slovenia: Via the Gorizia (A34) or Trieste (A4) border crossings, following signs for Venice until the San Donà di Piave exit.
- From Italy (West/North): Take the A4 highway towards Trieste, or the A27 (Belluno) southbound, then follow signs for Aeroporto/Jesolo/Mare.

Pro Tip: Once you exit the highway at San Donà di Piave, follow the signs for Jesolo and then for Cavallino-Treporti. The peninsula is connected to the mainland by a single bridge over the Sile River.
